Dear High School Senior,

The American Society of Military Comptrollers (ASMC) Okinawa Chapter is pleased to announce our intent to award a $500 scholarship to at least one deserving High School senior on Okinawa. This scholarship is open to all High School seniors (any branch of service, civilian or military) on Okinawa, with a GPA of at least 3.0, who are planning on attending college this fall.

Who/What is ASMC? ASMC is a non-profit educational and professional organization for persons, military and civilian, involved in the overall field of military comptrollership. Military comptrollership is defined as the professions of financial management in the Department of Defense and Coast Guard. It includes the fields of:

Accounting and Finance
Administrative Support
Auditing
Budgeting
Comptrollership
Cost Analysis

Financial Management
Management Analysis
Program Analysis
Resource Management
Statistics
and many supporting activities

ASMC promotes the education and training of its members, and supports the development and advancement of the profession of military comptrollership. The society sponsors research, provides professional programs to keep members abreast of current issues, and encourages the exchange of industry knowledge, techniques, and approaches. ASMC also strives to be a strong corporate citizen through community service projects and programs.

How do I apply? Along with the completed attached application form, you need to submit an essay on one of the two topics provided and two letters of recommendation. The letters of recommendation can be from a teacher, coach, academic advisor, church official, private organization officer, etc.

The application packet needs to be scanned into an electronic file and e-mailed to our President, Ms. Cindy Lynch. Her e-mail addresses are cindy.lynch@pac.dodea.edu or actgsfun@yahoo.com . The deadline for application packets is April 15, 2009. We plan to present the scholarship to the winning applicant at our May ASMC meeting. Questions regarding the application process can be addressed to Ms. Lynch.

Finally, we would like to congratulate you on approaching graduation! You should be very proud of this accomplishment and we applaud you on your decision to further your education. A higher education is definitely more than just a piece of paper; it is a valuable asset that will help you reach your personal and professional goals and ambitions. Thank you for applying and we wish you the best of luck with all of your future personal, educational, and professional endeavors.

Sincerely,
